

Bachelor of Architecture

Program Specific Outcomes

PSO1: Acquaint, develop and strengthen the fundamental core concepts about the trends in the field of architecture to solve practical problems.

PSO2: Train students to gather and apply the knowledge of building materials, services, construction techniques, structural and environmental systems to design sensitive building envelope responsive to context, climate, culture, societal and ecological concerns.

PSO3: Develop the professional and entrepreneurship skills to suffice current needs of the industry like independent, logical and analytical thinking, team work and leadership.

PSO4: Nurture students to investigate using managerial skills and innovative approach for the design and development of a workable solution for real world problems.

PSO5: Inspire students for making successful professional carrier by accomplishing design solutions on basis of physical, social, economic, environmental parameters in the field of architecture.