

Master of Urban and Regional Planning Program Outcome

PO1: Apply knowledge of statistics, social-science, architecture and civil engineering to urban planning problems.

PO2: Identify, formulate, research literature and solve repetitive urban planning problems.

PO3: Planning of various infrastructure meeting desired specifications and requirements for sustainable development.

PO4: Explore inventory and surveyed data, interpret and analyze the information to provide conclusion.

PO5: Select and use appropriate planning techniques and software tools to analyze urban planning problems with understanding of limitations.

PO6: Assess local and global impact of societal issues on planning profession.

PO7: Able to understand the impact of planning solutions on society and demonstrate the knowledge of, and need for sustainable development.