

Master of Arts (Sociology)

Program Outcome

PO - 1 Social orientation (A responsible citizenship education) is done through the program. Also developed skills and deep understanding in the subject with the help of curricular and non-curricular activities.

PO - 2 South Gujarat region consists more than 50% tribal population. Students coming from this area are still first generation learners and cope up with the realities and recent trends.

PO - 3 Their main objective is to get job at school level, so they prefer to join master's program in arts. The programme help them to get better position in merit for higher education studies.

PO - 4 After studying the program, students would be also able to compete the UPSC, GPSC, UGC-NET/JRF, GSET and other competitive examinations of Government Departments.

PO - 5 Students would be able to get employment opportunities in the Teaching, Research and NGOs and Private sectors.