Message from the Controller of Examinations

It gives me immense pleasure and a sense of pride to present the report of the 59th Convocation of Veer Narmad South Gujarat University, Surat, held on 24 August 2026. Convocation is not merely a ceremonial occasion; it represents the culmination of years of academic endeavour, perseverance and commitment of our students and reflects the collective efforts of the University in maintaining the quality and credibility of its academic and examination systems.

The conferment of degrees marks an important transition in the lives of our students. Behind every degree awarded lies a comprehensive process of teaching, learning, evaluation, verification and certification. The Examination Section of the University has the responsibility of ensuring that this entire process is conducted with accuracy, transparency, confidentiality and adherence to established academic standards.

The 59th Convocation witnessed the conferment of 37,305 degrees across 12 faculties, representing the diverse academic disciplines and programmes offered by the University. The successful completion of such a large-scale academic and certification process reflects the coordinated efforts of the Examination Section, faculties, departments, affiliated institutions and other stakeholders. The award of degrees and diplomas is therefore not only an acknowledgement of individual academic achievement but also a reflection of the University's commitment to academic rigour and institutional responsibility.

The examination and certification system has increasingly acquired greater significance in an environment where authenticity, accuracy and timely academic documentation are essential. The University remains committed to strengthening examination processes and ensuring that the academic achievements of every eligible student are appropriately recognised and duly certified. From Vidyā to Vikas: The 59th Convocation as a Celebration of Knowledge, Values and National Responsibility

“सत्यं वद । धर्मं चर । स्वाध्यायान्मा प्रमदः ।”

“Speak the truth. Practise righteousness. Do not neglect self-study.”

— Taittirīya Upaniṣad

A convocation is much more than a ceremonial conclusion to a programme of study. It is a moment of transition—a saṃskāra in which the university formally acknowledges the completion of a learner’s academic journey and entrusts the graduate with a larger social responsibility. In the Indian intellectual tradition, education was never conceived merely as the acquisition of information or a qualification for employment. Vidyā was understood as a means of cultivating wisdom, character, discernment and responsibility. The 59th Convocation of Veer Narmad South Gujarat University, held on 24 August 2026 at the Sanjeev Kumar Auditorium, Surat, beautifully brought together this enduring civilisational understanding of education with the contemporary aspirations of higher education. The official programme scheduled the ceremony for 11:30 a.m. and structured it as a carefully sequenced 76-minute academic and ceremonial proceedings.

It gives the members of the Report Writing Committee great satisfaction to present this report as a collective documentary record of an important milestone in the academic history of the University. A convocation report is not merely a compilation of photographs, lists, certificates and proceedings. It is, in a deeper sense, a record of the University's continuing commitment to knowledge, excellence, values and nation-building. The present report attempts to preserve both the factual details and the spirit of the 59th Convocation so that this important occasion remains part of the institutional memory of Veer Narmad South Gujarat University.

The significance of the 59th Convocation becomes particularly evident from its scale. More than 37,305 degrees were conferred across 12 faculties, reflecting the University's wide academic reach and its responsibility towards a large and diverse student community. The occasion also reaffirmed the University's tradition of recognising academic merit through medals and prizes. The achievement represented in these degrees belongs not only to the graduating students but also to their parents and families, teachers, research supervisors, colleges, administrative personnel and all those who contributed to their educational journey.

A Convocation Rooted in the Indian Idea of Education

The Indian tradition offers a profound conceptual foundation for understanding the meaning of convocation. The ancient Samāvartana ceremony marked the completion of formal education and the student's return from the gurukula to society. Importantly, the completion of learning did not signify the end of responsibility. Rather, it marked the beginning of a new phase in which knowledge was expected to be translated into ethical conduct and social contribution.

The spirit of this tradition finds a contemporary expression in the 59th Convocation. The ceremonial sequence began with the arrival of dignitaries, the wearing of the convocation scarf and the academic procession, followed by the University Song. It then moved to Anvadhan and Ishti rituals with Deep Pragatya, creating a meaningful symbolic transition from darkness to light, from ignorance to knowledge and from learning to enlightened action.

The lighting of the lamp is particularly significant in the Indian educational ethos. The familiar prayer,

“तमसो मा ज्योतिर्गमय”

Lead me from darkness to light, captures the essence of education as a movement from avidyā to vidyā. The lamp therefore becomes more than a ceremonial object. It symbolises the University's enduring responsibility to illuminate minds through knowledge, reason, research, creativity and ethical values.

This symbolism is also deeply connected with the identity of Veer Narmad South Gujarat University. The University's emblem incorporates the sun, star and spiral, symbolising truth, knowledge and infinity, while its Sanskrit motto is “Satyam Gyanam Anantam” — Truth, Knowledge, Infinity. Thus, the 59th Convocation was not an isolated event but a living expression of the University's foundational philosophy.

Tradition and Transformation

One of the distinctive features of the 59th Convocation was the harmonious combination of Indian ceremonial traditions with contemporary institutional practices. The programme included the traditional academic procession, supplications by the Deans, admission of graduates to degrees and diplomas, the Chancellor's formal grace, academic addresses, presentation of medals and doctoral degrees, and the National Anthem. At the same time, the programme incorporated the uploading of the degree on NAD (DigiLocker) by the Hon'ble Governor of Gujarat, demonstrating how the traditional ceremony of conferring knowledge and academic recognition can coexist with modern digital systems.

This synthesis of tradition and technology is particularly relevant in the context of contemporary Indian higher education. The National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 calls for an education system that is holistic, multidisciplinary, rooted in Indian knowledge and values, while simultaneously responsive to technological transformation, innovation and the changing requirements of society and the economy. The 59th Convocation reflects this broader transition: the ceremony honours the past, recognises achievement in the present and prepares graduates for the future.

The University's own mission resonates strongly with this orientation. It emphasises research and enquiry, creativity and innovation, technological capability and value-based ethical leadership, while also encouraging extension activities that connect the University with society.

The Academic Procession: Knowledge as a Collective Journey

The academic procession has a significance that goes beyond ceremony. It symbolically places teachers, academic leaders and graduates within a shared continuum of knowledge. The procession reminds us that education is not an individual achievement alone; it is a collective endeavour transmitted across generations.

The presence of the academic leadership, Deans and other dignitaries on the dais represented the institutional structure through which knowledge is nurtured, evaluated and transmitted. The participation of the Deans in presenting the supplications for admission to respective degrees and diplomas further demonstrated the academic character of the occasion. The supplication formally acknowledged that candidates had been examined and found qualified for the respective degrees or diplomas.

The subsequent passing of the grace by the Hon'ble Chancellor and Governor of Gujarat, Shri Acharya Devvrat Ji, transformed individual academic achievement into a formally recognised institutional accomplishment. The programme then recorded the digital uploading of degrees on NAD (DigiLocker), followed by the Registrar's declaration regarding the award of degrees and diplomas.

From Degree to Dharma: The Responsibility of the Graduate

Perhaps the most important message of any convocation is that a degree represents both achievement and responsibility. A university can confer a qualification, but it cannot by itself determine how that qualification will be used. The true measure of education ultimately lies in the manner in which knowledge is applied to improve individual lives and society.

The traditional Indian injunction,

“स्वाध्यायान्मा प्रमदः” — Do not neglect self-study, is especially relevant in the twenty-first century. In an era characterised by artificial intelligence, rapid technological change, information abundance and constantly changing professional requirements, graduation cannot mean the end of learning. It must become the beginning of lifelong learning.

Similarly,

“सत्यं वद । धर्मं चर ।”

reminds graduates that professional excellence without ethical responsibility remains incomplete. Knowledge must be accompanied by integrity; innovation by responsibility; achievement by humility; and individual success by social sensitivity.

This philosophy also complements the objectives of NEP 2020, which places considerable emphasis on holistic development, critical thinking, ethical and constitutional values, multidisciplinary learning, creativity, research and the development of responsible citizens. The graduate of today therefore needs not only technical competence but also the ability to understand society, respect diversity, think critically and contribute constructively to the nation.

The Ceremony as a Journey from Light to Leadership

The sequence of the 59th Convocation itself may be read as a symbolic journey. The University Song established institutional identity; Deep Pragatya invoked the symbolism of light; the Registrar welcomed the gathering; the dignitaries were felicitated; the Deans formally presented the candidates; the Chancellor conferred the institutional grace; the digital degree was uploaded; the Registrar formally announced the awards; the Vice Chancellor addressed the graduates; the Hon'ble Governor delivered the Presidential Address; and academic excellence was honoured through the presentation of University medals and Ph.D./M.Phil. degree certificates. The ceremony concluded with the Vote of Thanks and the National Anthem.

The 22-minute presentation of University medals and Ph.D./M.Phil. degree certificates was particularly significant because it brought individual academic distinction into the collective celebration of the University. Behind every medal and degree lies a story of perseverance, discipline, mentorship and sustained intellectual effort.

The University as a Bridge Between Knowledge and Society

Veer Narmad South Gujarat University was established with a broader regional responsibility and continues to serve the educational aspirations of South Gujarat. Its stated vision emphasises excellence in higher and technical education while remaining sensitive to regional needs and changing global realities. Its institutional mandate extends across diverse areas of knowledge and society, including technology, business, industry, commerce, language, culture and fine arts.

This regional responsibility assumes even greater importance in the context of NEP 2020 and India's aspiration to become a knowledge-based and developed society. Universities are increasingly expected to function not merely as centres of degree production but as knowledge ecosystems—spaces where teaching, research, innovation, entrepreneurship, culture and community engagement interact.

For the graduates of the 59th Convocation, therefore, the degree is not simply a certificate of what they have achieved. It is also a reminder of what society may reasonably expect from them. Whether they enter academia, industry, administration, entrepreneurship, professional practice, research, public service or other fields, their education should become an instrument of constructive change.

Gratitude: The Invisible Foundation of Achievement

Every convocation is a celebration of graduates, but every graduate's success is supported by a much larger community. Parents and families provide emotional and material support; teachers provide knowledge and mentorship; supervisors guide research; administrative personnel ensure academic processes; examination staff maintain the integrity of evaluation and certification; and institutions provide the environment in which learning becomes possible.

The report itself acknowledges the important role played by faculty and families in the achievements of graduates. The meticulous examination and certification processes behind the conferral of degrees are equally important.

As members of the Report Writing Committee, we place on record our sincere appreciation for the collective efforts that made the 59th Convocation successful. The minute-to-minute programme demonstrates the careful planning required to conduct the entire ceremony within 76 minutes, from the academic procession and University Song to the National Anthem. Such precision is possible only through coordinated institutional effort.

A Message for the Graduating Generation

To the graduates of the 59th Convocation, the words of the ancient Indian tradition offer a timeless message:

“मातृदेवो भव । पितृदेवो भव । आचार्यदेवो भव । अतिथिदेवो भव ।”

Revere your mother, your father, your teacher and your guest.

These words may be understood today in an inclusive and contemporary manner—as a reminder to recognise the people, institutions and social relationships that contribute to our development.

Carry your degrees with pride, but carry your values with greater pride. Let your knowledge remain connected with humanity. Let your professional achievements strengthen social well-being. Let innovation remain guided by ethics. Let intellectual freedom coexist with responsibility. And let success never become a reason to forget the society from which you have received opportunities.

The true completion of education is therefore not the receipt of a degree. It is the transformation of knowledge into wisdom and wisdom into responsible action.

A Living Continuum: From Narmad to New India

The University bears the name of Veer Narmad, whose intellectual and literary legacy represents inquiry, expression, social consciousness and the spirit of modern Gujarat. The 59th Convocation stands within this larger intellectual continuum. It connects the University's historical foundations with the emerging aspirations of a rapidly transforming India.

The University emblem's message—“Satyam Gyanam Anantam”—provides perhaps the most appropriate philosophical conclusion. Truth is not merely something to be memorised; it must be pursued. Knowledge is not merely something to be acquired; it must be expanded and shared. Infinity reminds us that the boundaries of learning are never final.

The graduates leaving the University today therefore carry with them not merely a qualification but a continuing relationship with knowledge.

“सा विद्या या विमुक्तये”

That is knowledge which liberates.

May their education liberate them from ignorance, prejudice and intellectual limitations; may it enable them to think independently and act responsibly; and may it inspire them to contribute to a more just, innovative, inclusive and prosperous society.

Acknowledgement of the Report Writing Committee

The preparation of this report has been a collective academic and editorial endeavour. The members of the Report Writing Committee express their sincere gratitude to of the 59th Convocation—Dr. Gaurang D. Rami, Dr. Gaurav S. Shah, Dr. Paresh S. Patel, Dr. Pravin R. Dudhagara, Dr. Paresh B. Joshi and Dr. Panna Trivedi—for their valuable cooperation and scholarly contribution. The report records the Committee as the designated body responsible for documenting the 59th Convocation.

The Committee also acknowledges with appreciation the Convocation Branch and Examination Section, whose administrative and technical efforts supported the preparation and conduct of the ceremony. The report records the contribution of the Controller of Examinations and the staff members of the Convocation Branch in this process.

Finally, The Committee expresses its respectful gratitude to the Hon'ble Chancellor and Governor of Gujarat, Shri Acharya Devvrat Ji; the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Dr. Kishorsinh N. Chavda; the Registrar, Dr. R. C. Gadhvi; the Controller of Examinations, Mr. Arvind Dhaduk; members of the Board of Management and Executive Council; Deans; faculty members; officers; staff; parents; and, above all, the graduating students whose achievements gave meaning to the occasion.

The 59th Convocation of Veer Narmad South Gujarat University will remain a memorable milestone not merely because of the number of degrees conferred, but because it represented a meaningful confluence of tradition and modernity, knowledge and values, individual achievement and social responsibility, Indian heritage and contemporary educational aspirations.

The ancient Indian vision of education teaches us that learning reaches its true purpose when it returns to society in the form of responsible action. NEP 2020 similarly places education within the larger framework of holistic development, innovation, values, knowledge creation and nation-building. The 59th Convocation reflects this continuum.

As we formally close the academic chapter represented by this Convocation, we should remember that convocation is not an ending—it is a commencement in the deepest sense of the word. The University has given its graduates knowledge, skills and values; the larger world now awaits their contribution.

May they walk forward with confidence, humility and courage.

May they remain committed to Truth, Knowledge and Infinity—“सत्यम् ज्ञानम् अनन्तम्।”

And may their learning become a source of individual fulfilment, social transformation and national progress.

“विद्या ददाति विनयं, विनयाद् याति पात्रताम्।
पात्रत्वाद् धनमाप्नोति, धनाद् धर्मं ततः सुखम्॥”

Knowledge gives humility; humility leads to worthiness; worthiness creates opportunities and prosperity; and these, when guided by dharma, contribute to well-being.

With this spirit, we dedicate this report to the graduates of the 59th Convocation and to the enduring mission of Veer Narmad South Gujarat University—to illuminate minds, advance knowledge, nurture values and serve society.

University Song

May green, propitious land of south
Gujarat be hailed; Our university set up is beauty with bliss dovetailed.

Tapi, Purna, the river Narmada, Ambika, Kaveri;
South Gujarat is so lush green in riverine silken sari.
A wreath of pearly waves of the westerly sea roars;
The soil is fertile all year graced with natural resource.

All folks are joyous, noble, and good-natured as well...
May green, propitious land of south Gujarat be hailed...

Variegated mores are of Raniparaj and Kaliparaj:
Festive are the ways of tribesmen and forest-dwellers.
Ports are humming here, every industry flourishes;
Art, craft and brotherhood what very age nourishes.

Here the modern time itself first dawned and prevailed...
May green, propitious land of south Gujarat be hailed...

With a pinch of salt at Dandi, Gandhi defied the crown;
With Satyagrah at Bardoli, Sardar achieved renown.
The lofty song of Gujarat the poet Narmad penned;
Munshiji for ever taught what love means for the land

Dada sounded a bugle here for freedom unveiled;
May green, propitious land of south Gujarat be hailed....

The university of south Gujarat is indeed our mother;
An oracle of truth, knowledge and infinity to nurture.
Her pride, spread, progress are dearer to us than lives;
We should win laurels for her in order that she thrives.

On the feet of learning let Parijat of devotion be dwelled;
May green, propitious land of south Gujarat be hailed;
Our university set up is beauty with bliss dovetailed.

વિશ્વવિદ્યાલય ગીત

ધન્ય ધન્ય ધરતી લીલી,
મંગળ દક્ષિણ ગુજરાત,
સ્થાપિત વિદ્યાપીઠ અમારી
રમ્ય અને રળિયાત.

તાપી, પૂર્ણા, સરિત નર્મદા, અમ્બિકા, કાવેરી,
લાટ સદાએ લીલોછમ નદીઓનાં પટકૂળ પહેરી.
પશ્ચિમે રત્નાકર કેરી ધૂધવે તરંગમાળ,
કુદરતની છે મ્હેર કે ભૂમિ બારે માસ રસાળ.

સરળ પ્રકૃતિનાં સૌ લોકો આનંદી, અભિજાત.....
ધન્ય ધન્ય ધરતી લીલી, મંગળ દક્ષિણ ગુજરાત.....

ભૂગુણધર્મિની પુણ્યભૂમિ છે, ભૂગુણ મશહૂર.....
ચોર્યાસી બંદરના ઘ્વજથી, સુરત સોમ્ય - ભરપૂર,
રામ અને શબરીને પગલે, ધન્ય ડાંગની ધરતી
કોલક, કીમ, મીઠાળા નદીઓ, નીશદિન કલકલ કરતી.

સાત સમંદર પાર અહીંની પ્રજા ઘણી પ્રખ્યાત
ધન્ય ધન્ય ધરતી લીલી, મંગળ દક્ષિણ ગુજરાત.....

રાનીપરજ ને કાળીપરજના ભાતીગળ સંચાર,
આદિવાસી - વનવાસીઓના ઉત્સવમય વ્યવહાર.
અહીં બંદરો ધમધમતાં, ઉદ્યોગો ધમધોકાર,
કલા- કસબને આતુભાવના અહીં ઉત્તમ સંસ્કાર.

અર્વાચીન સમયનું ઊગ્યું અહીં પહેલું પરભાત.....
ધન્ય ધન્ય ધરતી લીલી, મંગળ દક્ષિણ ગુજરાત.....

નમક લઈ દાંડીમાં ગાંધીએ ફેંક્યો પડકાર,
બારડોલીના સત્યાગ્રહથી પંકાયા સરદાર.
કવિ નર્મદની કલમે પ્રગટ્યું ગરવું ગુર્જરી-ગીત,
મુનશીજીએ સદા શીખવી અસ્મિતા શું પ્રીત.

સ્વતંત્રતાનો દાદાએ અહીં શંખ ફૂંક્યો સાક્ષાત્,
ધન્ય ધન્ય ધરતી લીલી, મંગળ દક્ષિણ ગુજરાત.....

દક્ષિણ ગુર્જર શ્રેત્રની વિદ્યાપીઠ અમારી માતા,
સત્ય, જ્ઞાનને અનંતની એ છે ઉજ્જવલ ઉદ્ગતા.
એનાં ગૌરવ, વિકાસ પ્રગતિ અમને પ્રાણથી વહાલાં,
એને કંઠે પહેરવીશું સિદ્ધિની જયમાલા.

વિદ્યાને ચરણે ધરીએ નિષ્ઠાનાં પારિજાત,
ધન્ય ધન્ય ધરતી લીલી, મંગળ દક્ષિણ ગુજરાત,
સ્થાપિત વિદ્યાપીઠ અમારી રમ્ય અને રળિયાત.
