OR

- (a) Make a summary of the following passage :

Ours is an age of Science - of wonderful inventions and applications. Science has worked wonders in every field of life. It has transformed our ways of living and thinking. The scientific inventions have added to the comforts of life and minimised its pains. Man has become God like and his world heaven like. He has won time and space and has become the master of universe. Science has given us material power and to get it, we have sacrificed the eternal values of life. Science has taught us to doubt and disbelieve. Science without conscience is destructive. It should be used and properly applied.
